

BRIDGE CRUSH SOON TO PASS INTO MEMORY

Public Service Committee's Plans Promise Full Remedies.

6-CAR THROUGH TRAINS.

Surface Roads to Cross Sands

Street on Viaduct, Among Other Reliefs.

At the meeting of the Public Service Commission to-day a preliminary report from the Committee on the Brooklyn Bridge was presented by Commissioner Bassett. Commissioners Bassett, McCarroll and Eustis form the committee. The report deals with the congestion on the bridge and the prospects of ameliorating existing conditions. It was accepted. It is as follows:

"Under orders of this Board, the equipment of the various operating companies is being improved to avoid breakdowns and minor delays.
"New types of surface cars with double-sized platforms for quick loading are being designed.
"Increased policing, to prevent disorder and increased traffic regulations on the roadways, to prevent delays to surface cars. This feature is under the charge of the Bridge and Police Departments.

For Through Six-Car Trains.

"The elevated terminal at the Manhattan end of the bridge is being lengthened so that six-car trains can be placed in the pockets and entered more conveniently than now during rush hours. It is expected by the Bridge Department that upon completion of this work in a short time the change of cars at the Brooklyn end of the bridge, which has been a source of annoyance and delay for many years, will cease.

"Plans for the rearrangement of the Brooklyn terminals are being prepared, so that on the completion of the last-mentioned improvement additional additional empty trains can start in Brooklyn.

"The same street viaduct, about to begin construction, will carry the surface cars above Sands street.
"The completion of the Battery tunnel within the next few months will deflect a considerable part of the travel from the Brooklyn Bridge.

Trains Across New Bridge.
"The connection of the Broadway, Brooklyn, Elevated Railroad with the Williamsburg Bridge so that through trains may be run to the stations under Deane street.

The completion of the Centre Street

Subway, from the Williamsburg Bridge to the City Hall, Manhattan, expected to be completed in about two and one-half years, will probably afford the greatest relief to the Brooklyn Bridge of any single improvement now under contemplation.

The completion of the Centre Street

Subway, from the Williamsburg Bridge

to the City Hall, Manhattan, expected

to be completed in about two and one-

half years, will probably afford the

contemplation.

"It will be seen from the foregoing that the city is now following a definite policy of Brooklyn Bridge relief.

POISONING CAUSED DEATH; ARRESTS TO BE MADE.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 4.—Following rumors regarding the death of Lyman Frazz, a prominent resident of Lucerne, near here, two weeks ago, an autopsy was performed, and the result, announced to-day, was that death was due to opium poisoning, a large quantity of the drug being found in the stomach.
Coroner Dodson and the police are now making an investigation, and some arrests are expected in a short time.
